

PREGNANCY CENTER WEST
4900 Glenway Ave, Cincinnati, Ohio 45238

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA CONTACT:

Bill Schinkal, Development Director
513-244-5700; bill@pc-west.org
Pregnancy Center West
4900 Glenway Ave.
Cincinnati, OH 45238

Pregnancy Center West to Benefit from “My Fair Lady” Preview at Covedale Center for the Performing Arts

Long-standing Partnership Provides Life-saving Resources

(Cincinnati, OH, March 17, 2017) – Pregnancy Center West (PCW) announced today that it will once again benefit from the generous support of the Covedale Center for the Performing Arts. The Covedale Center will donate half of the proceeds of ticket sales through Pregnancy Center West to benefit PCW's life-affirming ministry. The highly-popular “My Fair Lady” will be previewed on Wednesday, April 26th, 2017 at 7:30 pm. Patrons that wish to benefit Pregnancy Center West are encouraged to visit www.pc-west.org and purchase their tickets through the Events Calendar, or call 513-244-5700.

“We're excited to attend the “My Fair Lady” preview and deeply grateful to the Covedale Center for their continuing generosity,” stated Nicole Santaella, Executive Director at Pregnancy Center West. “Our work with women and families truly saves lives and provides much-needed assistance to address their immediate needs. Thanks to our friends at the Covedale Center, and the many patrons who attend, we're able to reach and serve more individuals in need.”

PCW's partnership with the Covedale Center for the Performing Arts has been a blessing to those we serve for several years. Each year, the Covedale Center provides several opportunities for Pregnancy Center West to benefit from the preview shows. In 2017, these shows include “My Fair Lady” in April, “The Miracle Worker” in September and “Annie” in November at the Covedale Theater, and “Damn Yankees” at the Warsaw Federal Incline Theater in May. Patrons attending the shows have consistently had a great time and a wonderful experience, as the Center is known for its excellent performances. In addition to a great show, attendees can enjoy delicious, homemade treats provided by PCW supporters at no cost (free will offerings are accepted).

Tickets for the preview showing are $20 each, with half of the proceeds benefitting Pregnancy Center West. To purchase tickets for “My Fair Lady,” to be previewed on Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at 7:30 pm, please visit the Events Calendar at www.pc-west.org, or call 513-244-5700.

About Pregnancy Center West:

Founded in 1981, Pregnancy Center West (PCW) is a Christian, pro-life ministry dedicated to helping women facing untimely pregnancies choose life for their babies, providing assistance with pregnancy and parenting-related services to help make life-giving choices easier, and encouraging lifestyles of sexual integrity in keeping with God's plan for relationships. Located at historic Prout's Corner (where Glenway Ave., Guerley Rd. and Cleves-Warsaw intersect), the center engages women and their families every day as they work to fulfill their life-affirming ministry. PCW is an affiliate of Heartbeat International and the National Institute of Family and Life Advocates, and is a member of the Greater Cincinnati Pregnancy Center Coalition.